

VILLAGE EXPERIENCE

day as a Sicilian

You don't go to a Sicilian village just to hike, sightsee or eat but because you choose to live an experience, a story. The small villages of the Sicilian hinterland are a great opportunity for Relational Tourism and you can immediately read it in the eyes of those you meet along the little streets: people always ready to smile at you as if they were grateful for your visit. Here you are not going to meet tourists or visitors of famous places but travelers in search of emotions. The real attraction of these places are human relationships and the great heart of the people. A local relational guide awaits you to help you enjoy a unique experience and will take care of the guests for the duration of the visit.
